SIR,

With reference to your letter No. R. 6037/Agri. 1-10-59 dated 29th April 1911 enquiring if the services of two Exhibition peons can be dispensed with provided a Police guard be given in lieu thereof, I have the honor to state that at present there are three peons (two permanent and one temporary) one peon of the three is left to help the garden mali in keeping the surroundings clean and maintaining the garden therein. Of the other two peons one is kept in the office , the other one to sweep the stalls, godowns and also to bring the tappals and personal delivery, etc.

I am therefore unable to do away with the services of the existing menial staff. The necessity for the Police guard is obvious as the office which was in ordinary times being held in in Bangalore has since been removed to the Exhibition Buildings with all articles of furniture, cash chest, etc. Its distance from the City strengthens my view of providing Police guards to help the Office peons during night watch. The duty expected of the peons cannot be ~~done~~ done by the Police constable. It is therefore desirable that a Police guard may at least be ordered to be kept during nights only to safeguard the valuables in the office.
